Amos 7:7-17

Amaziah, the priest, seeks to undermine the message from God that Amos is willing to communicate. The harsh truth of Israel's waywardness — symbolized in the plumb line — stands as a witness against Amaziah, King Jeroboam, and all of Israel's leaders.

Colossians 1:1-14

Paul and Timothy send greetings and encouragement to the faithful in Colos'sae; they express great joy at the faith which is taking root in these new believers, and highlight the fervent prayers they offer.

Luke 10:25-37

An expert in the law seeks the boundaries of his religious responsibility; Jesus shares the parable of the Good Samaritan to spread his arms wide, revealing to the lawyer that all come within the reach of the command to love one's neighbor.
